

THE HIGH GROUND

Saturday, April 1, 2023
2:00pm

Arena Stage Kogod Cradle
1101 Sixth Street, SW, Washington, DC

A Black man in an army uniform stands his ground atop Tulsa's Standpipe Hill, bearing witness to the destruction and desecration of Tulsa's Greenwood District — but other forces, both friendly and hostile, conspire to remove him. A play in conversation with Tulsa, Oklahoma's 1921 race massacre, The High Ground offers a complex portrait of what it means to root, to resist, and to proceed from devastation.
